RE: In Re Lodestar Energy, Inc. Bankruptcy
February 28, 2002 - Billing Statement for local counsel
EXPEDITED PROCESSING REQUESTED

Attached is the February 28, 2002 Invoice for $48,035.80 for professional services rendered by Bunch & Brock as local counsel in Lexington, Kentucky, for the Lodestar Bankruptcy matter, a copy of an email from Bunch & Brock agreeing to discount this amount at my request by $2,000, and a Law Firm Billing Approval Form. Mary Ann Wright and Lowell Braxton have approved the discounted amount for payment.

Local counsel's services were outstanding, substantially assisting the state in successfully defending against Lodestar's preliminary injunction motion and obtaining bankruptcy court approval for a settlement involving a complicated process for replacement of more than $4 million in reclamation bonds for two coal mines operated by Lodestar in Utah. Utah also obtained an initial $1 million superpriority administrative claim as interim security for reclamation, increasing to $2 million unless certain deadlines are met. By contrast, the Kentucky state mining officials were enjoined from enforcing Kentucky's reclamation bonding laws.

In addition, the settlement precludes the debtor and its post-petition lender from objecting to payment of our local counsel's fees, up to $50,000, from the bankruptcy estate as an administrative expense. Although there is no guarantee that the bankruptcy court will award the full amount of these fees, it is very likely that a substantial amount will be recovered from the bankruptcy estate and refunded to us.

I regret that my inexperience with office procedures has delayed this request. Please expedite payment of this invoice in the discounted amount of $46,035.80. Thank you for your assistance, and I will keep you informed of the status of recovery of these fees from the bankruptcy estate.
